the characters attentively they saw that the Meaning was whowever arrives here and is ignorant of the Road let him know that the Road on the right hand is without danger and without Defeculty but that on the left is full of deficulty and danger when Diw Jaz had read the inscription he looked to the daughter to the Emperor as much as to say what would You have me do "Why do you ask me such a question said the fair ask Your own courage I will follow you wherever Your heart leads you go on Haf what May said Diw Jaz God be my guord and proceeded on the left hand Road and the lady followed on close behind him For three days and three Nights they saw no appearance of danger On the fourth day on immense desart espended before them devid of house or woods without wells and without water in which two termendous elephants of prodigious size appeared which as soon as they smelled the scent of man attacked them with the utmost fury Fair lady what say you now to the Matter enquired Diw Jaz the lady answered what
