

this expect observing the bodies a little more carefully they perceived a scar on each of their foreheads what can this be said they and pulling out knife cut open the scars and perceived that there was a jewel in each of them brilliant as the rays of the sun They praised God for so lucky a chance and proceeded on their way till they arrived at a vast and populous city with Minarets mosques and lofty domes raised up to the heavens in every quarter Diu Soz covered the lady with a veil and conducted her to the Caravansera Towards the close of day Diu Soz having taken his bow and arrows in his hand came out of the Caravansera and saw the Emperors Vizier Marching along with great pomp and tumult He enquired who it was and was informed that it was the Emperors vizier going to council He approached and saluted him what do you want said the Vizier and whence do you come "I am a native of Ormus said Diu Soz and am now come from India How did you contrive to reach this country said the Vizier Blessed be God answered the young warrior I reached it through his favour did you meet with no dangerous adventure
