

adventure asked the Vizir Diu Loz answered I met with Nothing the world except two furious elephants on My Road which by Gods assistance I killed when the Vizir heard that he was amazed and said Killed both the elephants did You say where is the Man who could kill two such prodigious animals That Man am I by Gods favour said Diu Loz How can you prove Your words to be true said the Vizir what proof would You have said Diu Loz was their any thing in their foreheads said the Vizir whatever there was I have brought it along with Me said he seeing is believing replied the Vizir It is at my Lodging replied Diu Loz The Vizir accompanied him to the door of the caravansera Diu Loz went in and having brought out the precious stones showed him them The Vizir was convinced and said Gods Mercy Test on Your head nobody could have slain them but Yourself They have long blocked up that Road and a considerable period has now elapsed since the precious stones were inserted in their forehead and they were turned loose come along
