

along with her when we had proceeded several leagues from that city I was overcome with sleep and when I awoke a lake was near us and I resolved to bathe I descended to the lake and undressed myself accordingly when the damons having take the mirror from my garments bound me hard and fast and instantly attacked the company and killed and consumed the whole party with fire they were then proceeding to destroy the princeps when one of the damons was moved to compassion It is a pity said he to kill so fair a damsel let her be our captive Night came on and they bound me fast to a tree terribly frightened and quite at a loss what device to fall on // Unfortunately I recollect the ancient sage in this extremely and that instant he presented himself He repeated a powerful prayer and breathed over the host of damons and having taken the Mirror from them gave it into my hand saying I considerate Man be prudent and consult the Mirror He immediately vanished and and when I looked in the Mirror I saw written