

surprised and asked who has brought this Ox here "Immediately the Shah recollected that he had not seen Melech Mahommed that Morning "God forbid" said he "that this unlucky beast should be our friend himself Bring us word where he is Perhaps he has gone to his uncles house" His uncle immediately bowed his head to the ground and said God Knows I can tell you nothing about him but as soon as he saw the Ox adorned with Gold and jewels I would not wonder thought he if this very animal were that ill fated fellow "and he said with a sor-casted smile "May the King live for ever if Melech Mahommed be not standing in the presence in beauty and grandeur for Ghetu Aprox has gone and left him here to die" The prince asked where he was There he is said Danish trait tied in a most Magnificent stile to the tree" "It was very wrong said the prince for Melech Mahommed to kiss the cheek of the prince in the Manner he did before all the company The hapless Ox said to himself I also repent of it most heartily but I have some hopes from the courtesy and kindness of the King and a shower of tears trickled down his Ox like