

had driven quite out of his Memory "Princess said he thought to have delivered a Message which I bring you from King Anushah he has been seized with a violent longing for your society and is anxious to obtain your acquaintance He says you have lived along time in his vicinity without taking any notice of him and asks why you and he should not be better acquainted and now if he can obtain your Permission he proposes to pay you a visit of ceremony Cheti aforesaid very good the same idea has often occurred to myself but its execution has always been deferred from time to time enjoy the feast and quaff the wine till I have dismissed this Perizada when I will give you an answer" Then turning to the Perizada has Anushah no sence of pride that he will still persist in teasing me with messages³ are not the harshness of my answer and the ignominious Manner in which I dismissed the Vizir sufficient to convince him that I have completely renounced his allegiance He is provoked at my conduct and I am full of resentment of his Go this is your answer & If Asar Shah be enclined to send his host against me tell him to do it quickly