saying O sun visaged prince you are welcome I wished to have the pleasure of seeing you The Shah advanced in the most respectful manner and beheld a venerable sage of radiant aspect throned on a seat of stone with his face turned towards the centre of devotion (Mecca) and nothing but his mat beside him The Shah made him a profound reverence & which he returned and the Shah advanced unto his presence with profound respect Then the sage enquired the cause of his coming It is not concealed from you said the Shah Then said the Shah In the name of God arise and let us see what the Mercy of God will do the Dorrish and the Shah and his attendants set out for the mansion of the ancient Man when Dii Fay saw their approach he ran and threw himself at the feet of the Shick the Shick lifted him up and saw that the young warrior was drowned in tears The sick enquired who it was This said the Shah in Dii Fay appeared with grief for the loss of his spur and son The Shick comforted him in a goodly manner -
