

and said to himself I must try to get some News of the Shah and his affairs go on among the Persis He mounted his horse and when he came near the Palace he saw come running to meet him ah thought he it is the Shah sure enough and he cried Very well done great prince Immediately the cat came up to him and he lifted it and placed it in his bosom then having sent for the box of Medicine she put a little into the cats Mouth when the cat whirled round and round and then assumed its own shape The Shah immediately dropped himself and rode off for the palace He was more mortified with the accident than ever a person was in the world and said to Danish Bait there is neither white nor stratagem by which I can be avenged of her for a Mortal Man like me can never contend with a Peri Thus far however I can Melech Mahommed is her souls delight I will put him to death and scar her bosom with a lasting wound The Vizir answered be it according to your Majestys pleasure Where is he said the Shah send for him instantly Fortunately however Ghiti aforesaid after the Shah was changed into a cat had sent a
