

One a favorable answer that I may know my fate. Gheti afox answered let him take off his affections from me and leave me to the enjoyment of my own destiny. This youth of the face of man who sits here before you will I make the diadem of my hours. Hope nothing from me for I am quite incapable of altering my conduct.
The Virgin Depled. Thou art done with me and I am done with thee and immediately departed with a burning breast and a watery eye. Gheti afox took the hand of Melech Mahommed and seated him on her own throne and said My faithful friend in your separations from me you have endured many diseases but now I am wholly and solely yours. I devote myself to you and resign myself entirely into your hands. Be you my head the throne the Kingdom and myself are yours. When Melech Mahommed heard these words had he been sick for a hundred years he had instantly revived and he repeated

He that in thirst exaspering lay Has found where lifes pure waters play The wealth of all the world can bring No joy like lifes celestial Spring,
Then
