

the famous Sheik Sunian of Bagdad The King directly called his Vizir Khujsteray and desired him to go and prevail on Sheik Sunian to undertake the cure "Beseech him to pity my situation and not to reckon the fatigue of the journey painful to the sole of his foot Immediately Khujsteray set off and in a few days reached the presence of the Sheik and related to him the particulars of his commision The Sheik made many excuses the Vizir made lamentations till the importunity of the latter prevailed and he succeeded in conducting him safely to the city of Abez The King came out to meet him and introduced him into the city with great honors when all the particulars were related minutely to the Sheik he said ^{there were} two disciples who perfectly understood the destemper The name of the one was Damadil but he was absent on his travels in the region of the south the name of the other was Roshen Limin but he too was unluckily absent in the North The Sheik immediately addressed a letter to them in these terms "We are in the City of Abez in the presence of Azur Shah on sight of this letter proceed to join us with the utmost haste and without delay" The two disciples received the Letters and proceeding with the utmost expedition arrived in the presence of the
