

carry all your servants and furniture with you she answered I shall afterwards return here They set out and a little arrived near the abode of her father Ansoor Shah was informed that Ghete Afroz was coming and he sent her elder brother with all his Viziers and Troops to meet her as he had the greatest affection for her of all his children for this reason he was extremely delighted her ordered the most rare and costly carpets to be spread in the most delightful places and his own chamber to be prepared for her Reception Ghete Afroz was introduced into the city with every Mark of respect and conducted in the most respectful manner to an inter-view with her father the Shah who showed her every Mark of favour and affection and inquired kindly about her affairs But what man creature is this said he that you have taken such an affection for This is he said she turning to Melech Mahommed But what is his Name said her father The faithful Melech Mahommed answered the Princess Catching him immediately by the hand she made him prostrate himself at the feet of her father Ansoor Shah raised the head of Melech Mahommed and -
