

Plump their forms each slender waist
Seems too small to be embraced

Ghetuafroz after their arrival requested Melech Mahommed to present her respects to the Shah and to tell him that she expected him with all host at the end of Three days Melech Mahommed returned with speed to the Casert of King Anushah who was expecting him with extreme impatience. The Shah enquired what answer he brought, Melech Mahommed replied May the life of the King be long and prosperous she received your message with many expression of pleasure and she hopes at the end of three days to be able to receive you with suitable respect she however requests that her intimate guests may be only three your Majesty Danish Bait and your servant. Next all your host may pitch their tents without place and sent down in rank and file to the banquet. Anushah was highly delighted and could hardly prevail on himself to wait for the expiration of the three days. He often caught himself repeating —

Tomorrow