

Perigadi to watch his Motions ordering her to hold herself invisible and inform her of whatever should happen when the Pev heard him express his intention of putting Melech Mahommed to death she instantly set out to inform her Mistress who was presently acquainted with all their proceedings as soon as Ghete Afoz heard the News she began to weep and wail bitterly and instantly springing up proceeded to the Court of the Shah when the Shah enquired for Melech Mahommed Danish Bait informed him that he was in the shape of a dog and chained up in his dog Kennel the Shah directly sent some executioners in quest of him who with great Rage and cruelty loosed the dogs and brought them out lashing them severely all the way This is but cold kindness thought Melech Mahommed doubtless this day will be the death of me Fetching a deep sigh he repeated the following verses

Sweet Zephyr to my love impart
The anguish of my banished heart
She feasts from care and sorrow free
And never never thinks of me
If where my charmers graces dwell
She would but grant her slave a cell

Blest