Thousand daimons sprund up and attacked me on all sides again I consulted My mirdor where I saw writen say aloud May You all be consumed by the Power of Suliman the prophet when I had uttered these words fire fell on all their bodies and they all fled in a blaze of flame I thanked God and taking the lady by the hand came out of the palace I came before the sage and saluted him He replied Thank God you may now return I commit you over to the divine protection but pray conduct this lady back to her own residence and be careful of your conduct for many daimons will assail you most venerable sage have the goodness to inform me of your Name said I. He answered my Name is Khalifah and I am one of the vicegerents of Suliman the prophet after taking leave of the sage I travelled on for twenty days and nights till arrived at a certain city Enquiring its name I was told it was situated on the confines of Herman The lady was delighted when she heard the name of Herman she gave thanks to God
