

success of his mission and mentioned what he had seen and heard the elder brother of Ghete Afroz immediately proposed to pay her a visit and reclaim her to her duty "At all events said Ansan Shah let us destroy this man of mortal wrath and then her affections may take another course Melech Mahommed however was all the while congratulating himself extremely on all that had happened oh said he I go on prosperously you see in what state said Ghete Afroz for the love of thee I have dismissed my fathers Vizier " My soul is unable to express the fervor of my gratitude " answered Melech Mahommed The silver limbed cupbearers brought in the Ruby wine and after having quaffed several goblets they embraced each other tenderly and passed the time in affectionate carresses till midnight when they retired to the same couch " Be cautious said Ghete Afroz not to transgress your prescribed limits and be not guilty of any indiscretion that you will have cause to repent of " I am too happy he answered to be permitted to kiss your hands and feet Twining their